2012 Bank of Scotland Imagine Festival Fringe Proposals

Following the success of last year's Bank of Scotland Imagine Festival Fringe, we are now looking for exciting, beautiful, moving, funny proposals from artists interested in creating work for children.

The Festival Fringe is an excellent opportunity to be involved in the Festival programme, try out ideas and receive audience and delegate feedback.

2011's fringe saw polar bears, high flying sheep, planemakery, scooters and loud shouts of 'bogies' A number of the artists involved in last year's Fringe have gone on to develop their Fringe performances into productions for children and young people.

If you have an idea for a short performance piece for children aged between 0-12 that can be performed in the Traverse Bar area (we are open to discussing the use of any space within this area) please tell us your thoughts in no more than one page of A4, including a paragraph on your experience of creating work and that of co-artists involved.

Details:

The Imagine Festival Fringe will take place on Saturday 12 and Sunday 13 May 2012.

A small budget of £60.00 for each artist/performer will be allocated.

The closing date for proposals is 5.00pm on Friday 24 February 2012.

If you have an idea for new work that you are looking to share then we want to hear from you. Please email ideas and proposals to Jennifer Cummins, Project Co-ordinator at Imagine to jennifer@imagine.org.uk
